

NOTE: Concept plan and section provides an indication of overall intent for the subject area and guide further design development, cost-estimates and coordination. The embellishments, layouts, implementation and staging of works may vary through design development. Further progress on the project remains subject to Council budget prioritisation, Federal and State Government approvals, and State agency input.